ROBINSON.—LUCIAN DABNEY ROBINSON was accidentally killed at his home, "Springfield," in King William County, on Thursday, February 11, at 1 P. M., by falling on a circular saw which was being used for the purpose of sawing firewood. He was born on the farm known as "Rhode Island," in King William County, on November 16, 1841, and was the son of Captain Samuel Robinson and Mary Susan (nee Dabney) Robinson. On his father's side he was a descendant of Speaker Robinson, of the House of Burgesses, and of Robert Moore, of "Chelsea," King William County, and on his mothers side he was related to the Dabneys of King William County and colonel Samuel Downing, of Westmoreland County, He left the following sisters and brothers. Mrs. Fannie Lacy, Mrs. Nannie D. Lewis, Albert Robinson and James S. Robinson. He was educated at the private schools in King William County and also at the farmous old academy of King and Queen, known as "Aberdeen Academy," which he left when very young to enlist as a soldier in the Civil War, where he soon won the distinction of a brave and gallant soldier, and was promoted to the office of lieutenant in Carter's Battery, and IN MEMORIAM. ton S. Robinson, James S. Robinson, P. H. Robinson and Sophie C. Robinson, who Intermarried with Dr. William E. Croxton, of King William County, His body was interred at Jerusalem Church, in King William County, on SATUR-DAY, February 14, at 11 A. M., and a very large crowd of people from the adjoining counties attended his burlal to pay their last tribute to him as a citizen, officer and old Confederate soldier. The pallbearers were as follows: Active—Edmund Littlepage, J. B. Hill, R. C. Hill, Jr., K. I. Richards, R. Gregory, Jr., John B. Green, Nat. Garrett, and R. C. Billups. Honorary—Hon. H. I. Lewis, R. HAHR.—At a meeting of the Board of Governors of the Wednesday Cllub, held on February 8, 1915, the following resolution concerning the death of MR. FRED C. HAHR was unanimously adopted:

adopted:

Whereas, our friend and co-worker, MR. FRED C. HAHR, has been called to his final reward; and Whereas, we, the Board of Governors of the Wednesday Club, while sensible of our great loss, bow with submission to the will of an all-wise Providence, and deeming it proper that some testimonial of our appreciation of his life and usefulness as a member of this board should be of record in the minutes of this association; now, therefore, be it for white and colored boys, 14 to 17 years of this association; now, therefore, be it.

Resolved, That the Board of Governors of the Wednesday Club feels keenly the loss of MR, HAHR, who was from the organization of this club one of its sincerest friends and one of its most enthusiastic supporters. MR, HAHR was a man of rare natural ability, of wide culture, of gental disposition, and a devotee of his art for art's sake, Gifted as he was with musical talent of the very highest order, he was always the earnest student and painstaking interpreter of the best form of musical composition, and was at all times ready with his best services and wise counsel to further the progress not only of music, but of all the graceful arts and sciences that make for the advancement of culture and refinement.

Resolved, further, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the family of our distinguished friend.
